WHERE CRAFTSMAN AND PRODUCT BECOME ONE

---

In this age of automation, we have preferred to remain behind the trend, doing much of our work by hand, working directly with materials rather than mass producing with indifferent machinery.

We manufacture only banjos; all our efforts are devoted exclusively to the purpose of creating the utmost possible in this instrument.

We play the banjo as well as make it; we do not remain indifferent and separate, but become part of our work.

Series "Thirty"; Grade 1 Only

Specifications

NECK

The necks are laminated Peruvian mahogany and maple woods with five vertical and two horizontal laminations to increase strength and insure against warping. The neck is so constructed that the grain of the individual lamina are in opposition with each other which also aids stability. A hand rubbed, natural finish is used to bring out the full beauty of the wood.

An adjustable tension bar is incorporated to counter balance string tension and compensate for climatic changes.

ALLEN NUT ADJUSTING TENSION ROD.

RESONATOR

The resonator has a curved mahogany back with non-warpable aluminum sides. It can be installed on any model and can be easily removed at any time.

RESONATOR

(Series "Thirty"; Grade 1 Only)

PRICE (ALL MODELS)	-----	$125.00
RESONATOR (MAHOGANY BACK)	-----	$ 18.00
D-TUNERS (For Square Peghead Only)	---	$ 25.00

SORRY, NO DEALERS

When ordering your series "thirty" banjo, please specify your choice of the following:

- 1) Model (32 thru 36)
- 2) Peghead (scroll or square)
- 3) Tuning machines (side tuning Grover rotomatics or vertical pegs)
- 4) Drumhead (plastic or calfskin)

Prices and specifications subject to change without notice.

ODE Model 32

Left-handed 5-string Banjos available for $15.00 extra.

THESE TWO HEAVY BRACES ATTACH THE NECK TO THE RIM.

The fingerboard is Brazilian rosewood with mother-of-pearl position dots and nickel silver frets. There are also corresponding position dots inlaid on the side of the fingerboard.

Either side tuning Grover rotomatics (12:1 gear ratio) or vertical pegs (2:1 gear ratio) are available.

---

A NON-SLIP FIFTH-STRING PEG WITH A METAL
KNOB IS STANDARD ON ALL 5-STRING INSTRUMENTS.

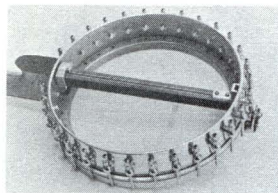

Your choice of a scroll or square type peghead is available on all models.

RIM

The truly unique feature of the Ode banjo is the rim which is cast aluminum, machined and polished. It will not warp and since the finish is produced by a polishing of the rim itself, there is no superficial surface to flake or chip off. It has the advantage of wood, being light, and possesses that ringing quality inherent only in metal.

ALUMINUM RIM

The series "thirty" rim (style A) has a flat top with our perforated tone chamber construction. A heavy notched tension hoop, armrest, two way adjustable inertia tailpiece (all chrome plated) and 28 brackets (nickel plated) are standard.

INERTIA TAILPIECE

We have found that the plastic head is best for all around banjo playing. It gives a clear, sharp sound, and is not affected by humidity. However, for those who prefer a more mellow tone, calfskin is available at no extra cost.

A three legged ebony, maple, and bone bridge; elastic capo; bracket and tension rod wrenches are standard on all instruments.

ODE Series "Forty" Banjos

Grade IV

Specifications

NECK

Ode series "forty" banjo necks are laminated with seven vertical and three horizontal laminations and all have an ebony fingerboard.

RIM

Three rim styles are available on any series "forty" instrument. Each style has an aluminum base with a bell brass tone chamber which gives the instrument improved bass, cleaner tone qualities, and more response throughout the entire playing range.

STYLE B—FLAT TOP, designed for the sharp, staccato response characteristic of bluegrass and fingerpicking styles.

STYLE F—FLAT TOP, designed for the smooth, mellow qualities of frailing and similar strumming styles.

STYLE R—ARCHED TOP, for crisp qualities in tone and response.

NOTICE

The demand for our instruments is such that we are frequently behind in our deliveries. We will not compromise quality in the interest of faster production. Please do not ask us to rush your banjo at the expense of those who have ordered before you. Your patience in awaiting your instrument will be greatly appreciated and will not go unrewarded.

YOUR COMMENTS AND SUGGESTIONS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME.
